BREED THEATER. "The Dancing Girl of Butte." Splendid Biograph Triumph.

large sized audiences greeted both presentations of the excellent programme offered at the Breed theater resterday, and were enthusiastic in praise of h, declaring it to be equal to the best shown this season. to the best shown this season.

One of the big feature pictures for this week is the pretty little romance of the dancing girl of Butte, being a bewitching story of love at first sight between a pretty girl dancer in a western concert hall and a young cartoonist on a daily paper of the same town. They meet in a most unusual manner, and the admiration develops into real love, which faot the artist's refends do not approve of, begging him to give up his strange but faecinating sweetheart. In the scene where his turns from her after she has shown thin where she has worked much ilm where she has worked much against her taste occurs some of the linest ble of acting ever seen in a enoring picture, showing the dancing girl to be one of the best emotional actresses in the Biograph company, hoth characters being drawn upon for some unusually heavy work.

This is only one of the many feature pictures, which show unexcelled comedy, dramatic and educational sub-

OFFERS $5,000. Challenges Chicago Federation of Labor.

When the average labor leader is criticised for the unfair, tyrannical or criminal acts of his union he does not usually hesitate to deny or wilfully prevaricate.

One of his favorite methods is to twist and distort his public utterances to convey a wrong impression.

People who know the tribe laugh and know the opposite to be true.

know the opposite to be true, a who have not watched this ten-These men who have secured con-

These men who have secured control of the unions fear and hate any writer or speaker who sees fit to tell the truth about the way workingmen and the public are treated by paid union managers.

One Pitzpatrick, president of the Chicago Federation of Labor, is said to have stated at a Sunday meeting the following: "During a recent freight wreck on a Baltimore & Ohio resirved near Pittsburg, three carloads of empty peanut shells were found consigned to the Postum Cereal Co. at Battle Creek." He deliberately ited and knew at the time he made the statement that he lied. He cannot make the public believe that such libels will adequately answer to the libels will adequately answer to the people who have been inconvenienced and the workingmen who have been abused, mistreated, tyrannized over, and forced to pay fees to the labor union leaders to carry out the infamous acts conducted by the Labor

There is a time coming when the workingman will secure his rightful position and fair treatment with suitable wages without being compelled to be under the iron heel of a few labor skates who have obtained control in some localities over the workingmen, and can tell them when to quit work or he subject to the slugging of their lafamous "entertainment committees." Labor is too sacred a part of the great world's work to be dominated by the violous, hate-producing, impudent and criminal men too often found in the ranks of these so-called officers and managers.

The works of the great food factories in this country are open to visitors at all hours of the working day, and are visited by hundreds of thousands of people who inspect every kind of material used and all the processes. The cleanliness of the Postum Careal Co., Ltd., plant is proverbial the world over Careal Co., Ltd., plant is proverbial the world over.

We have deposited in the Commercial National bank of Chicago, $5,000 to be covered by a like amount by the Chicago Federation of Labor. If the Federation of Labor can show that there were ever any peanut shells or teach of any kind shipped to and used by the Postum Cereal Co., Ltd., in their foods at any time in the history of its business, the Chicago Federation of Labor will take the $10,000, otherwise it will come to us. The Chicago Federation of Labor will not cover this amount. They know, and the president knows, that when he made the statement he constructed it out of whole cioth and voiced a wilful falsehood.

FOETRY. THE NEIGHBORS

At first cock-crow

Against the distant striking of the heard the crowing cock, And I arose and threw the window Ah, long before the setting of the

And yet I knew they must be passing soon—
My neighbors who had died—
Back to their narrow, green-roofed homes that wait
Beyond the church-yard gate.

Was like a thing empearled.

Mysterious and beautiful and still;
The crooked road seemed one the moon night lay;
The little village slept in Quaker And gray and tall the poplars on the

At first it seemed a white cloud, noth-

Slow drifting by my door,
Or gurdened lilles swaying in the
wond:
Then suddenly each separate face
I knew—
The tender lovers, drifting two and two;
Oid, peaceful folk long since passed
out of mind;
And little children—one whose hand held still
An earth-grown daffodd.

And here I saw one pausing for a

And here I saw one pausing for a space.

To lift a wistful face.

Up to a cerisin window where there dreamed.

A little brood left motherless; and there.

One turned to where his unplowed fields lay bare.

And others linguing passed. But one there seemed.

So over glad to haste size scarce could walf.

To reach the church-yard gate.
